PRESIDENT TURPIN IS FOR M'CARTHY PLAN

The Board of Aldermen will hold a regular session to-night, and the feature is expected to be the discussion of the word questions relating to the issuance of bonds to meet those falling due on January 1st.

of bonds to meet those failing the on January 1st.

Prosident William M. Turpin, who is an avowed advocate of the plan proposed by Captain McCartiny, which forbids the touching of the $56,000 now available in the sinking fund, will make an argument in favor of his proposition, and he is expected to say some spley things.
